Assaulted by Negro.
More than 100 armed men mounted and with bloodhounds, are on the trail of a negro who yesterday criminally assaulted Mrs. Alice Moore, wife of an Atlanta, Ga., merchant. Three negroes have already been arrested on suspicion. The assault on Mrs. Moore is almost unparalleled. It occurred about 11 o'clock yesterday morning in one of the most fashionable districts of Atlanta. Mrs. Moore had gone into her flower garden to gather roses, and she was stooping over a rose bush when the negro approached, and she never saw him. He fell her with a blow on the head and seized her by the throat so she could not scream. Mrs. Moore remained unconscious for some time, at last being discovered by her daughter, who went to see what was detaining her mother. When Mrs. Moore regained consciousness she was in a pitiable condition, but finally told her husband what had occurred. Poses were organized and the hunt for the negro began. The feeling throughout the city is very bitter, and if the right negro is caught there are threats of summary punishment. The assault has created an especially bad impression, coming as it does right on the heels of the President's visit and his speeches warning the negroes against the commission of crime.

Wants Powder Kept Dry.
Recent events, apparently, have turned the thoughts of Emperor William toward the probability of Germany soon becoming involved in war. His speeches at Dresden Wednesday and in Berlin yesterday contained pointed references to the probability of war and the necessity of being ready for it.

Addressing the officers of a Saxon grenadier regiment at Dresden, the Emperor said: "We live in a time when every young German capable of bearing arms must be ready to give himself to the fatherland."

At a banquet given in his honor in the Dresden Schloss Wednesday evening, the Emperor, replying to the king's toast to his health, said: "If the German Empire continues to prosper, then we can calmly with raised vigor and with the courage of free German men, confront any one who should venture to cross our path or to disturb us in the promotion of our reasonable interests."

After unveiling the statue of Field Marshal von Moltke yesterday his majesty addressed the highest army officers who were assembled around him at a dinner at the Schloss, saying: "How matters stand with us in the world you have seen. Therefore, keep your powder dry and your swords whetted."

Last Hope Vanished.
When leading physicians said that W. M. Smith, of Pekin, Ill., had incurable consumption, his last hope vanished; but Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, kept him out of his grave. He says: "This great specific completely cured me, and saved my life. Since then, I have used it for over 10 years, and consider it a marvelous cure for Coughs, Colds, Sore Throats or Croup; sure preventive of Pneumonia. Guaranteed 50c and $1.00 bottles at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, drug store. Trial bottle free."

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS
AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Insomnia and Indigestion Cured.
"Last year I had a very severe attack of indigestion. I could not sleep at night and suffered most excruciating pains for three hours after each meal. I was troubled this way for about three months when I used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and received immediate relief," says John Dixon, Tullamore, Ontario, Canada. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Faith Not Necessary.
You may be just as skeptical and pessimistic as you please. Kodol will cure what you eat whether you eat or not. You can put your food in a bowl, pour a little Kodol Dyspepsia Cure on it and it will digest it the same as it will in your stomach. It can't help but cure Indigestion and Dyspepsia. It is curing hundreds and thousands—some had faith and some didn't. Kodol will cure you if medicine can cure you, whether you have faith in it or not. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 461 King Street.

A Splendid Idea.
A new idea in a Cough Syrup is advanced in Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. Besides containing Pine Tar, Honey and other valuable remedies, it is rendered Laxative so that its use insures a prompt and efficient evacuation of the bowels. It relaxes the nervous system, and cures all coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. A red clover blossoms and the honey bee is on every bottle of the Original Laxative Cough Syrup. Kennedy's Laxative Honey Tar. An ideal remedy for children. Mothers praise it. It is best for all. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 461 King Street.

Origin of the Metric System.
Some very interesting facts have been collected about the foot, the most widely used measure of length in modern times. The measure is derived from the length of the human foot, but apparently has varied more than that portion of the skeleton can possibly have done in historic times. The ancient Welsh foot, for instance, was nine inches long, whereas the Piedmont foot was twenty inches. In modern times it has varied from the Spanish foot, of less than eleven inches, to the Venice foot, of more than thirteen inches. Almost every country has used a foot measure of a different length. It was this confusion which led the French to devise the metric system.

Bankrupt's Grain Goliath.
A curious instance of the magnitude of eastern ideas and admiration for things that are large is the grain "goliath," to be seen at Bankipur, in Bengal, India. It was built as a granary in 1783, but never used as such. Its walls are of masonry twelve feet in thickness, and it stands ninety feet high, with a circumference of forty-three feet at the base, and would contain about 130,000 tons of grain. Access to the interior is obtained by a staircase on the outside leading to a platform on the top, where there is a stone placed in the center, which can be removed. Now it is perhaps the finest whispering gallery in the world.

Smothered Pig.
There is a fish in Hawaiian waters which is known by the native name of humuhumunukunukuapuaea, which means literally "sewing up the nose." The Hawaiian method of killing a pig to be roasted is to smother it, not cut its throat, and it is smothered by sewing up the pig's mouth and nose. This fish with the long name has spines which in ancient times were used as needles to sew up the pig's mouth; hence the name more fully means "the fish that provides the needles for sewing up the nose of the pig."

Wanted That Kind.
"There are some spectacles," declared the lecturing Arctic explorer, "that one can never forget."
"Excuse me, mister," called the voice of Farmer Foddershucks from the audience, "but would you mind givin' me th' address of the firm that makes 'em? I'm allers a-forgettin' mine."—Cleveland Leader.

The Dinner Party.
That the success of a dinner party does not depend on the excellence of the chef, but on the proper assortment of the company, was precisely the opinion of a very witty old lady, who wisely said, "My dear, it isn't the menu that makes a good dinner; it's the men you sit next to."

A Bluff That Failed.
Careful Youth—Do you know that chocolates are frightfully bad for the digestion? Why, I was reading in the papers tonight about a girl that died of eating too many. His Fair Companion (disputantly)—Well, if that girl had been a friend of yours she would have been living yet!

Took Nothing With Him.
Hicks—Well, I see old Goldrox has lost every dollar he had in the world. Wicks—Incredible! What was it, failure? Hicks—Yes; heart failure. He died this morning—Chests Standard and Times.

Silence is frequently a duty when suffering is only personal, but it is an error and a fault when the suffering is that of millions.—Mazzini.
